Silver Oaks Hosts Members of British House of Commons (MPs)

Silver Oaks School & College, at its purpose-built Head Office & Darwin Campus in Civil Lines, was honored to host a round table dialogue between three visiting members of the British House of Commons, members of The British Council from UK and Pakistan and Silver Oaks and APS staff on the success of implementing Global Citizenship Program, Connecting Classrooms program and Leadership Training partnership for Educationists. MPs Rehman Chishti, Tasmina Ahmed-Sheikh and Yasmin Qureshi, Peter Upton Country Director British Council, Nishat Riaz Director Education, Shama Saeed Director APS and MD & CEO Silver Oaks, Hassan Sattar, also met students presenting various projects under the Global Citizenship Program at Silver Oaks. On the occasion, Hassan Sattar, MD Silver Oaks School & College said: "the visit to Silver Oaks of this important delegation on their first day in Pakistan is a testimony to the fact that we are leading the way in education on global citizenship. We formally train students on life skills; values, culture & ethics; health & nutrition; public speaking & oratory skills; and valuing diversity & inclusion. Our aim of introducing a structured and taught program, now in its third year, is to give students tools that will help them become effective leaders in a global environment."

When you feel that first crisp breeze, you know that summer is gone and fall is in the air, which has turned the world into a canvas with nature's paint brush. We are already in the middle of Term 2 and students are well on their way in school routine after the holidays. Your rejuvenated enthusiasm and A-game will be needed for a busy & activity filled period through to December. Make sure you are punctual in these days and brace yourself for hard work combined with fun

SILVER OAKS BECOMES UNITED NATIONS' AMBASSADOR

UN wall campaign was launched officially at Silver Oaks School System to celebrate 70th anniversary of United Nations. On the occasion Vittorio Cammarota, Director-UN Information Centre inaugurated the wall, hence announcing Silver Oaks as United Nation's Ambassador. This campaign gave an opportunity to the learners to explore the core values of United Nations through a dedicated wall in four of our campuses. Mr. Cammarota, while addressing the children, said: "You have the responsibility of tomorrow. The 70th anniversary of the United Nations is a great opportunity for having you to showcase a positive image of your country through active contribution as messengers of the core values of the United Nations in their schools and communities."

Silver Oaks School is a strong supporter of international learning because we believe that interconnected global challenges call for far-reaching changes in how we think and act for the dignity of fellow human beings.
